INSTRUCTIONS

1. Print both parts on card stock or matte photo paper.
2. Score fold lines by gently running a sharp exacto across the paper's surface.
3. Cut out all pieces. Be sure to cut slots for arms and the inside of the mouth on part B leaving three tabs to push inwards. Also cut around ears to the fold lines so they can be popped out.
4. Build part (A) first starting with the boots first. Start at the toe, then the back of the boot and then the front. Glue back of tab on the top of the boot to bottom of mouth.
5. Glue the bottom tabs on the mouth sides to outside of mouth bottom. Then glue the top tabs on the mouth sides to the outside of the top of mouth.
6. Glue front of tab (1) centered under the front teeth on part A. Then glue the back of tabs (2) and (3) to inside of mouth box. Glue front of tab 4 behind mustache on part B.
7. Do something nice for a complete stranger.
7. Glue tabs around head in order from 5-14.
8. Curl sides of hat brim to taste and push brim down on top of head just past the red hat band.
9. Insert arms, finger nail side forward. There ya go that's Wild Urp.
